

Some experiences in life are so amazing, words cannot aptly describe. Ours in Educare Int'l is one such experience.

My wife and I had looked at a number of schools during a school hunt for our 4-year old son, in the middle of the first term of the 2011/2012 school year, and eventually settled for Educare Int'l for a combination of reasons.

Having just relocated to Port Harcourt and lodging temporarily in a hotel, Mrs. Granville had observed that it would be very difficult for a 4-year old, active and explorative, to stay in an hotel room all day, and encouraged us to bring him to her school at no cost, pending when we decide on a school for him. A gesture, very uncommon and moving, in our money-crazy society.

On admission, our son could barely handle a pen, let alone write. The Director assured us that it was not a problem. Her optimism and unwavering confidence in our son's potentials to overcome his difficulties and excel, convinced us to settle for her school. We crossed our fingers, hoping that we have made the right decision for our son.

One and a half school terms later, our son had not only acquired the competences we so wished for, but has far exceeded all our expectations. He could do his school work unassisted!

Educare Int'l not only brings rare expertise and professionalism to their primary function of foundation building for little ones, but also adds a personal and humane touch to the unique needs of every child, and by extension, their families.

This is our experience. An experience, I am certain, most families here and before, share one way or the other.

Let the Light continue to shine on Educare Int'l and on our children.

Obi Ellah

4/26/2012 2:11:00 AM

4/26/2012 2:11:00 AM